“ Every time this year, I think of General Fisk as I put together my Christmas card list. He was such a character who I met in the early 70s when I worked for State Rep. Ben Atwell in the Legislature. I'll never forget the fun times that ensued whenever he was around. And what a great source of political know-how!! Someone broke the mold when Jack was born. Sadly, we'll never see his likes again.

“ Jack was a great person to be Round. I have fond memories of going hunting with dr EA Weinheimer and jack. I enjoyed him telling many thrilling stories about politics. Our leadership in Washington is so bad I really wish I could hear Jack's commentary. He was a good soldier and served his country we'll just as I did in Vietnam. I remember we had both been awarde Bronze Stars and we were both proud of that. RIP. Larry Hilliard CRNA. Belton,texas
