“ To Mr. Cox's family, he is still my most favorite college professor. I had elementary accounting 1 and 2 with him at WCJC. He tried to intimidate with black suits on test days, but if you are ready for the test it did not work on me. I used him as a reference on my first job and got the job. I do not know if I ever thank him. He was such a good man and I respect his teaching style. I am so sorry for your loss.
