“ So sorry to hear this, I enjoyed working with James at Prihoda Welding, he was a good man. I especially remember the delicious lunches his wife , Janie , would prepare and bring to him at Prihoda's. Janie took very good care of James. My deepest sympathies!

“ Uncle Henry and I shared the common love of guns, hunting and the comradery we enjoyed while hunting and who could tell the biggest whopper or deny we ever missed a shot. Bullsh-t was more on target than the real art of shooting but its the fun we had doing it. I will miss you dear friend and Uncle. RIP Kirk
