

James John Macek

July 9, 1953 - January 24, 2017

James John Macek, 63, of El Campo, passed away January 24, 2017. He was born on July 9, 1953 in El Campo to the late Henry Fred Macek Sr. and Selma Mae Selcer Macek. James worked in sales and service for Globe Services of Victoria.

James Macek has left us to join our Savior in Heaven. James loved God's creations and was devoted to providing for and protecting his family. He dearly loved his soulmate Cindy, his children and grandchildren. James loved the outdoors where hunting and fishing were his lifeline to his children and grandchildren. James was at peace at the river or at the deer lease where he was closer to nature and brought meaning to his life. From an early age he assumed the role of guardian for his siblings and kept that role the rest of his life. To his friends and family he was a brother. James was the rock, he did not lead the pack for the attention, he guided the pack to the answers. James touched so many lives with his kindness and helping hands. James will be greatly missed by all of us.

He is survived by his wife, Cynthia Coffey Macek of El Campo; son, Travis "Bubba" (Kimberly) Macek of Boling; daughter, Stephanie (Wayne) Macek Fults of Boling; stepson, Kyle Miller; stepdaughter, Kelsey Miller; brother, Dean Macek of Edna; sisters, Janie (Philip) Threet of Ganado, Dorothy (Bennie) Mach of Wharton, Doris Williams Stockton of Huntsville, Jean Macek of Seguin, Teresa (Bruce) Morrison of El Campo, Katherine (Bradley) Vallet of Needville; grandchildren, Kaylynn Macek, Brayden Macek, Dustin Fults, Corey Fults, Kyndal Hodge; Cynthia's brother and sisters, Dodd (Patty) Coffey, Anne (Harland) Hensel, Ruth Otto, Robbie (Henry) Hahn, all of Victoria and father-in-law, Elmo Coffey of Victoria.

James was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Henry Fred Macek Jr. and nephew, Michael Stockton.
