“ Janet was one lady of strength. Always caring for someone else while needing help for herself. I will always appreciate having known Janet for so many years. Know she is being cared for now in the arms of God. It was her time to be taken care of now.

“ Janet was a second mom for me growing up, welcoming me in her home and treating me like one of the flock. One thing that left an impression on me was the way Janet was so devoted to her children. Her pride was evident, her patience - sometime tested no doubt - but her love was limitless when it came to her children.
Thankful for the memories.
