“ Janie became a dear friend when my husband and I served a mission in Wharton, Texas and we often visited and sat together at church and at Linger Longer meals after church. She made the best pickled relish.

We enjoyed going to Stake Conference in Victoria together. She showed us where her sister lives in El Campo and shared many precious memories of her family during our drive. She loved visiting her sister at her home and told us she enjoyed talking to her and other family on the phone whenever she could. Janie has many eternal friends in Wharton and we will all miss her until we meet again beyond the veil. I know she is happy to be home with God and free of the pain she so bravely suffered in this life. May God bless the family and all her friends. Love, Jane and Bob Reed

I know this is somewhat late. But I never had ever found out she had died. Her and Mike were very dear friends. Janie and I shared a lot of time together, she was an awesome bartender at several places. We ran around together a lot. I knew she had pageous disease. She taught me that cheese and onions together were good to eat and she was taught me how to make cucumber salad her way. If it wouldn't have been for her my now current husband and I wouldn't have gotten together. She also helped me get a job at Do Drop By in Fairchild. I am so sorry to hear this on her passing. We had been friends for a good while. I am hoping Mike is doing ok. May she RIP.
