

Jesse R. Perez

August 10, 1955 - December 22, 2021

Jesse R. Perez, 66, of El Campo, Texas passed away on December 22, 2021. He was born on August 10, 1955, to Manuel Perez, Jr. and Dora Rivera Perez in El Campo, Texas. He attended elementary school in El Campo and Furr High School in Houston, Texas.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Manuel Perez, Jr. and Dora Rivera Perez.

He is survived by his sisters, Mary Rose Perez Galvan, Eva Perez Gonzales, and Olga Perez Doria, (James). His brother Manuel Perez III, (Marie) and brother Joe Perez as well as numerous nieces and nephews who he loved deeply and treated like his own children.

Jesse worked over 30 years in the maintenance field specializing in mechanical and electrical welding. He loved to go fishing and loved being near the water and anyone who knew him knew he would drive to Houston on the weekend to Sam Houston Race Track to enjoy his love for horse racing. He also enjoyed being at home on his patio barbequing for family/friends and listening to his favorite tunes from various Tejano artists. Jesse will be remembered for many things but mostly by his favorite words...Get Ta Clickin'.

Jesse touched everybody's lives and made it a point to make all those he encountered feel important and special. He showed up when it mattered most and was always willing to lend helping hands to his sisters, Mary Rose and Eva, and to his nieces, and nephews. The entire family is deeply saddened by his sudden death and he will be greatly missed by all.

Visitation will be held on Monday, January 3, 2022, from 4:00 pm-8:00 pm, Rosary 6:00 pm at Triska Funeral Home, 612 Merchant Street, El Campo, Texas 77437.

Graveside services will be held on January 4, 2022, at Holy Cross Cemetery Chapel at 10:00 am with Deacon Larry Hoelscher officiating.

To mitigate the spread of COVID-19, all attendees will be required to wear a mask.

The Family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern, and kindness shown to them during this time of bereavement. God bless you all!

“ My dearest little brother, you were called home way to soon. Who would have imagined that Saturday, December 18 would be the last time I would hear your voice. You sounded so happy telling me you were putting new tires on your car and that you will be driving down to Houston to enjoy your favorite pastime and love for horseracing at Sam Houston Racetrack. I remember inviting you over afterward like I always did but you declined to say you would be going straight home. Oh, how I wish you would have come by that night. You were always so concerned and worried about my health and not even worried about yours. We always checked on you and always questioned you on your health but you always stated you were fine and for us to quit worrying so much. I am very grateful for all you did for me and your sister Eva. You never complained or hesitated whenever we asked for repairs to be done around my house. Your famous and only words were always, just have me a good home cooked meal with tortillas. You were always ready to help anyone that needed it regardless of what type of work it was. I will miss your hearty laugh and your famous saying "Get Ta Clicken". You were a pistol at times but overall you were such an awesome brother and words cannot express how much I missed you already. It's been extremely difficult these last couple of days adjusting to the fact that you will never call or come by again and although we will never get over your absence, it brings my heart solace knowing that you are now resting and reunited with mom and dad and the rest of our relatives in Heaven. I love you and until we see you again, Rest in Heavenly Peace.

Your sister,
Mary Rose

“ Gonna miss Jesse very much ,he was always a great friend to my parents. But i especially remember when i was about 3 years old and Jesse was partying with my mom and dad in Denver Harbor and no matter how many beers he had he would read me 101 dalmatians. Jesse is one of the best people I've ever had the pleasure of knowing.

“ Jesse's truly going to be missed he was a blessing to all of us anytime you needed something you just call him and he was there I'll never forget the time he called me and I had been crying. my water heater had gone out and he called out of the blue and asked how I was doing and I said I'm doing fine Jess how are you doing. I'm doing good he goes something's wrong with you what's wrong and I kept saying nothing and then finally I broke down crying and told him and he says I'll be there in the morning quit your crying that's what Jesse was he was he was a blessing. He was always checking on me after Mike passed away and I would check on him to see how he was doing and most of the time when I would he was the racetrack. Betting on those horses. 🐎. Love you my brother
