“ Dear Susie,
We were so saddened to hear this. We were out of state, my sister's husband had just passed away also, so I didn't hear till after we returned.
Jim was such a special man! Always an encourager, always a smile. He left quite a legacy in ministry and will be missed by many. Please accept our condolences. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
Love & Blessings,
Pastor Danny & Susan Roberts

“ Brother Jim is one of the kindest men I have ever known. Markham FBC was blessed by having him as our 'under-shepherd', even for a short time, and Grady and I were pleased to have he and Suzie as friends. May the family be comforted that he is with the Lord, where there is no suffering.

“ Suzy,

Butch and I were saddened to hear the news of Jim's death. He was a very special person. I have very fond memories of him many years ago at the old Central Church. May God be your source of comfort and healing in the coming days.

I knew Bro. Jim, from Port Arthur, Beaumont, Houston, ElCampo, and finally Markham. Such a Godly dapper man. He did not have scandal in his life or ministry. A loving caring pastor and friend. I so enjoyed him and his family, down the years. I was always ten years behind him in the ministry. He helped me as a friend, a mentor, and finally as a pastor. God has so used him. Always the gentleman. Yet he had a hard life, with. Lots of struggles and trials, always above the flood. Dont you know he is happy now
