“ Carol,
My deepest sympathy to you and your family. I have thought of you often over the years and regret that I didn't keep in touch. My thoughts and prayers are with you and yours at this time.

“ Cousins all--
So very sorry for this loss. I only have good memories of Joel and wish our lives could be like those days when families didn't live so far apart and our days were not spent on so many less important things than family togetherness.
Edith Carol, please know that our thoughts are with you and the girls and their families. CJ told Cathy and me about the great courage he showed in his battle during the final days.
Sincerely
Richard and Cathy
