“ Dear Faas Family,

We are so very sorry for your loss. Our family will miss John so much, every day. He always came to the fence to speak to and play with our dogs over the last 20 years that we've been neighbors. He'd also speak to us sometimes, too. John would ask the day was going, and we'd reply fine. He'd always respond with the same words when asked about how his day was going - "Well enough not to complain!" We would have deep conversations through the years, about the dogs, his trip to Italy, family, etc. You could always count on it that John was kind, gentle, and liked to visit. We are missing him, and our dogs go to the same place at the fence every day, looking for him. I hope the Lord wraps each of you up in the peace that only He can bring.
