“ I am truly sorry to see about the loss of Johnny. I hadn't seen him in years and ran into him a couple of months ago. He was always friendly and loved sharing in a conversation. He told me all about his plans to retire and move to Thailand with his wife.

“ Can't tell you how many of our toys Uncle Johnny and Uncle Allen would take apart and couldn't put back together. Including all of our talking dolls, they would be very apologetic, but then we give them our next doll because we love them so much. We just trusted them that they could put them back together!

“ I have many many memories, one that stands out is when we slept in the back rooms of the house in Holiday Beach, Uncle Johnny would wake us in the middle of the night. He would be sitting straight up in his bed arms reached out changing gears on his motorcycle sound asleep! It was sooo loud!!!!Scared us half to death😭🌀
