“ JJ was like my big brother i didn't have.He is the one that taught me to swim in a rice canal.He taught me to ride a horse and to drive even if it was in first gear from Bay city to El Campo.JJ and I used to crawl on top of the three story barn and talk for hours.JJ was always there when i needed him.I can remember him helping my mother to swim.I remember when he lived with us I was just a teenager.I remember him telling a couple of my boyfriends that they better behave.Thanks JJ for all the lovely memories.I will always love you.
