

Jose DeLacruz Garza O'cañas Jr.

February 8, 1939 - January 16, 2023

Jose DeLacruz Garza O'cañas Jr. "Tito" was born February 8, 1939 to the late Jose & Catalina Ocanas in Robstown, Texas. His family moved to Danevang, Texas where he was raised.

He was a shy boy that was always happy no one ever saw him angry. He loved listening to music, strumming the guitar and singing. His love of music could be heard throughout the neighborhood.

He married Janie Perez in 1962 and they were married close to 50 years before she passed away in 2011.

He enjoyed hunting and fishing but fishing continued to be special to him in his later years. Juan Mendoza, his nephew would come pick him up all the time to go fishing, that was his fishing buddy also his nephew they were so close. His godson, Gilbert Rodriguez also took him fishing.

He was a hard worker and he had many jobs throughout his life. He worked in the fields, road construction at Brown and Root, and for seventeen years he work at the Markham Municipal Utility District where he retired in 2011.

He loved going to spend time in Danevang, Texas with his nephews to play pool, drink and talk about anything and everything and telling stories. He always loved to spend time watching scary movies and talking about scary stuff with his pride and joy, his one and only grandson Chris and going out to eat with his one and only princess daughter, Nancy. He loved taking trips to visit his brother, Santos who would always want Tito to stay with him so they could drink a few and talk about the past. Spending time with his pride and joy, Nancy and Chris and his family is what he loved to do. He was so loved and will be missed very much but will never be forgotten. He was an amazing man with a heart of Gold.

Tito's departure from this life came very unexpected Monday, January 16, 2023 in Markham, Texas.

He leaves to cherish many loving memories to his one and only devoted daughter, Nancy O'cañas Jimenez, One and only pride and joy his grandson, Chris "Tata" O'cañas. Brothers: Santos O'cañas of Friendswood, Texas and Juan O'cañas of Victoria, Texas. Sister: Celia Key of West Columbia, Texas. Many nieces, nephews, countless number of friends and family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jose and Catalina O'cañas; Wife: Janie O'cañas of Markham; Sisters: Marie DeLaLuz Valdez, Guadalupe Mendoz all of Danevang, Texas, Felipa Martinez of Silverton, Texas and Dolores Garcia of Houston, Texas; Brother: Genaro O'cañas of Danevang, Texas .
