

Joyce Hunt Ivy

May 20, 1930 - November 11, 2023

Joyce Ann Hunt Ivy, 93, of El Campo, Texas, peacefully passed on November 11, 2023. She was born on May 20, 1930, in Gonzales, Texas, to John Phillip Hunt and Ethel Peeks Hunt.

She grew up in Gonzales, Texas. Her places of residence included Wharton, El Campo, Glen Flora, and Canyon Lake, Texas. All of which held a special place in her heart.

Joyce worked most of her younger years as a waitress and grocery retail worker. She was highly experienced in every aspect of both businesses and customers absolutely loved her. She was able to retire early and enjoyed taking care of their home and yard.

She was referred to as “Grandma” by many. She had a kind heart. She had an adventurous spirit and a big love for her family and friends. She also had a quick wit mixed with some good ol’ sarcasm that always made for good laughs and fun times. Joyce was loved by a great deal of people.

She loved sweets, music, dancing, movies, reading, and visiting with friends and family. She also loved laughing and making people laugh. And she really loved the Houston Astros.

She is survived by her daughter, Vickie Holub of Glen Flora; her granddaughters, Deborah Krenek and Shana O’Roark of Granbury; and great-grandson, Christian of Granbury. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 48 years, James J. Ivy, Jr.; her sisters, Josephine Click and Violet Benefiel; her infant brother, John Phillip Hunt, Jr.; and her son-in-law, Paul Holub.

Joyce’s much-loved friends and extended family include: Lisa Machen of Glen Flora; Michael and Sharon Thyssen of Glen Flora; Patricia Bartos of Wharton; Bill and Sharon Morris of El Campo; nephew and family, Steve, April, Dustyn, and Ally Click of Goliad; niece, Bonnie Neal of Castroville; nephews and niece, David Ivy, Kim Ivy (Catha), and Susie Ivy Huff (Danny) formerly of El Campo; Carl and Kathy Corporon of El Campo; Chelsy Mayes and family of El Campo; Ann Carroll of El Campo; and Harold and Bernadette Smith of El Campo. She loved many others that made up the community of Glen Flora, Texas, and she thoroughly enjoyed their company, and the company of their friends and extended families.

Joyce enjoyed life and liked to keep things simple, so in honoring her final wishes, she requested a private graveside service.

The family would like to thank the caring staff at Arbor Hills Rehabilitation and Healthcare Center in Eagle Lake, Texas. Also, we couldn’t have done it all without Houston Hospice ~ El Campo. They are a wonderful non-profit organization with an experienced, caring team that showed loving dedication and provided valuable assistance when needed most. We are grateful to both.

If so moved, memorial donations may be made to Houston Hospice ~ El Campo Office, 1102 North Mechanic, El Campo, Texas 77437-3029. Phone: 979-578-0314

“ My deepest condolences. Mrs. Ivy never ceased to make me laugh or put a smile on my face whenever I ran into her in town. She was such a sweet lady and dear friend to my mom. I hope the 3 neighbors are catching up on all their conversations. ❤️

“ We want to send our thoughts and prayers to the family of Joyce Ivy. Joyce was a good and loving soul. She enjoyed the simple things in life, a good hamburger, pizza, homemade bread with home made grape jelly, and let's not forget chocolate cake. We enjoyed visiting with Joyce, she always made us feel welcomed when we visited her. We will miss her, but we know she is in a better place now.

Again, our sincerest condolences to the family of Joyce.
