“ My condolences to the family of my primo Juan we grew up together back in the day. My family lived in Palacios he lived in Edna, but we always kept in touch in 2009 we visited with him and my aunt Chanta that was my last time that I saw him. I was very proud of his success with his family and the business he had built. Rest in peace my brother. Life is short live everyday like it is your last. Vaya Con Dios.
