“ We are having a cremation done for our father. Therefore we are not having any type of service at Triskas funeral home. Our father wanted a celebration done instead for his life. Anyone who knew our dad will hopefully understand that. His urn will remain at home with Toby. We are in the process of planning a date for a get together at his home to celebrate his life with family and friends. We will let everyone know as soon as possible. Thank you all for the warm thoughts and love. Please share❤️
