

Judy Johnson Lamantia

July 29, 1946 - January 25, 2024

Judy Johnson Lamantia was born July 29th, 1946 to Charles Johnson and Shirley Johnson in Lansing, Michigan. Judy passed away on January 25th, 2024 at the age of 77. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Gordon Johnson.

Judy is survived by her husband, Jean-Pierre Lamantia; her two daughters, Stephanie Tyner (Greg) of Savoy, Illinois and Gretchen King (Kevin) of El Campo, Texas; her step-son Jean-Phillipe Lamantia (Amanda); her sister Kristine Johnson; her sister Deanna Johnson; her brother Barry Johnson; her grandchildren, Matthew and Benjamin Tyner, Trinity, Jacob, and Faith King, Luke, Noah, Adrian, and Julian Lamantia; and many nieces and nephews.

In 1964, Judy graduated from Ottawa Hills High School in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Judy raised her two daughters in Houston, Texas where she was a dental assistant before spending more than 15 years in the restaurant industry. She managed several of Houston's notable restaurants including Guadalajara and The Stables. While working in the restaurant business, she made more friends than can be listed, the most notable being her husband, Jean-Pierre. Judy and JP lived in Houston and Felsmere, Florida before retiring in Bastrop, Texas. She made life-long friends at every stop. Judy loved to cook and bake. Her specialty was making cookies for her friends and family. She had a green thumb, a knack for anything artsy, and an obsession for her cats. However, nothing meant more to her than her family, and none more than her two loving daughters.

A memorial service honoring her life will be planned at a later date.

“ Im so sorry to hear of Judy's passing. She came to my yoga classes in Sebastian & then during covid & after, online. Judy's was there, working on her breath, calming her mind & wanting to feel good. I didn't scroll down far enough in her fb feed to see she transitioned. She was always such a bright light & we had fun talking. I was sad when she moved away. Im sad now knowing she's gone & not forgotten...that's why I had to write here even though it's been 2 birthdays now. Wishing you all peace. Becky Yoga Ma Allan
