“ *Ronnie and Linda, we pray that the strength of the Lord will support you during this time. We also pray that Justin sees, from his place in Heaven, how very special and very loved he is. We cannot be there with you but know that our hearts and prayers are there everyday.
We love you.*

“ Dear Ron and Linda, We are praying for you and your family during these difficult times. I will always remember Justin's infectious smile. One of my favorite memories is during a trip to your home Justin took my sons out to "see the farm"; what seemed like hours later all three boys return mud soaked to almost their chest; you questioned Justin on how they got so dirty and Justin replied "I don't know, farmers get dirty."

“ Dear Ronnie, Linda, Bradley and Rest Of Family,
Words just cannot express the sadness we feel for you at the loss of your precious son. Remember he is in the loving arms of his Heavenly Father now and he is loved and protected from pain and sorrow and unhappiness. You have a beautiful angel now in Heaven watching over you that loves you very much. Trust in God to help you through this terrible sorrow. He loves you very much. We love all of you so very much! Our deepest sympathy, Hugo and Anne Schilhab.
