“Mama, I miss you. Not a day goes by where you are not missed. I feel you all around me. I remember you standing by your car reading or by your corner at the counter. I remember back to your days of endless sewing of our Christmas outfits and stage clothes. Mending our jeans. Endless hours in the garden and yard. You were always building something greater than yourself. I will always remember your words to me. I keep those on my mind constantly. The camp where I spent my summers is going to close. I remember the trunks filled with 2 weeks of socks and candy and comic books and beef jerky. Those were the days in the Tx Hillcountry. I remember countless hours listening to the rain and rolling thunder in the hills. Thank God for you and Dad. My life has been amazing because of your every gift you bestowed upon me. So much has changed Mama. I really wish I could hear and see you and Dad cheering me in my games. I purchased a Football picture from the All-star game. I plan to place it on you and Dad's grave. I ran every time for you both. As fast and as hard as I could run. Hold John close. We lost y'all too soon. I love you mom.

“ Kathy was my first roommate out of high school. We shared with Barbara and Kay in a quadraplex near the Shamrock Hilton Hotel. She and I worked in the same office in downtown Houston and remained friends the rest of her life. She was a delight, bringing much knowledge and light into my life. May she rest in peace now. ”
