“ Kathy always had a smile even tho she was not always feeling good. She always loved talking about the grandkids with pictures in hand. She will be missed by so many until we all meet again. There were friends and family to welcome her to heaven by those who went before her and loved her too. I loved her for so long and will miss her.

My family and I loved Kathy as our sister in Christ. She and her Dad along with her sister Claire helped lead me to Christ our Lord and Saviour.

Mike and family, my deepest condolences go out to you along with my love. After moving away from our hometown I lost touch with one of the best friend and woman I coulda have ever known. Thank you Jesus for helping Kathy to her eternal home. Kathy will live forever in our hearts.

“ Few people in my life have treated me with such kindness. She always had an encouraging word and never showed an ounce of self-centeredness. I visited her in the hospital a couple of years ago-most of her family was there. She was the most gentle spirit in the whole room. Her good spirits belied the ordeal she had been going through~for many years. I left grateful to have been with her.
