“ Keith gladly and graciously played on a tune on my CD, and this was by far my favorite...He was an amazing player of all instruments he could handle as well as a great and fun guy. He will be sorely missed way up north in Alaska as well. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XE2HJGPsR18>

“ Keith somewhat recently put some fine tuners on my fiddle for me. We did some horsetrading with instruments and musical equipment as well. He always liked coming to my house because he thought I had a bunch of "neat stuff." I am most saddened that he is no longer with us other than in spirit. May he be fiddlin' and raisin' the roof in Heaven!

“ Keith and I met at the Dallas Steel Guitar Show a few years back. We became instant friends and I got a big kick out of his frank comments about music and musicians. We went to lunch at Denny's and visited about his years in Alaska and my years all over and had a million laughs. Later in the day some of the musicians in the Mullen room were straying from Traditional Country Music. Keith left the room and went walking around so I joined him. We walked around and talked about music. After a while I said hey let's go back in the room and jam some more. He said "I been in there all morning and haven't heard a fiddle song yet. If you hear one call me and I will come join you". We used it as a joke over the years. I would message him and tell him where I was playing and say "we don't have any fiddle songs". He would say "hey you know I play drums and guitar also don't you". When I would send him a picture of a guitar I had purchased or was up for sale his response would always be "Can I Have It". I would always say "yes and what do you want to go with it". Then we would be off and running about music equipment. I will miss him greatly. Prayers for his family during this difficult time. I know that band upstairs just got hot onto those fiddle tunes when he arrived. And yes now Keith You Can Have It... That golden fiddle my friend.
