“ Barbara and family you are in our prayers. Sam will be truly missed and as anyone that knew him knows He was one of a kind. A country boy that was smarter than most of the city boys. There was never a dull moment when Sam was around.

“ Sam, oh Sam,” his mama always called, “it's time to come home.” Rest in peace my dear cousin. You were the missing piece in my life: my little brother. Aunt Opal was there to greet you, but those you left behind will always miss you.
