“ Lexi lived life on her terms, to the fullest. When I stayed at her house with Gina it was always a blast. Whenever, and wherever I saw her, she remembered me and always had a kind word. God broke the mold with this beautiful soul. God speed.

“ My dear Aunt Lexie, how we will miss you. So many memories I have that make me smile and still laugh out loud! The things I will remember about you.... from your always perfect bouffant hair to your silver and gold shoes, your dainty piano playing-cigarette holding fingers, your unforgettable voice and your large personality. We never had to wonder where we stood with you. I appreciated your direct personality and your straightforward comments. I will hold dear all of our good times – times at the bay with you and Uncle Gene, playing poker, cans of government issued pork, cigarettes on the porch at Grandmas, your request for just a “sip” of beer in a tiny glass (never straight from the can), your ladylike finesse and your forthright opinion, the Christmas carols on the piano (Silver Bells every time), letting me light your cigarettes when I was small and many rowdy times that I will never forget. Love you Aunt Lexie and can't wait to see you again! I am sure that you have notified Heaven that the party has arrived!

“ It seems appropriate that Mrs. Lexie would pass on July 4 because she was such a firecracker in life! While not a close personal friend, I have known her for many years. She was a friend of my parents as well as to some of my in-laws. She had the gift of gab and knew how to light up a room. RIP, sweet lady! I hope you keep heaven on their toes, you did that so well here on earth. Much love-----Mava Jalufka

“ My friend forever, Lexie was a fun-loving gal who was such a wonderful outgoing lady. There were so many times we laughed together always with her perfect hair. She had a life that was well-lived and was certainly greatly loved by many who knew her. Fly high, Lexie, and keep the party going.

“ As a little boy I grew up in Moulton and knew Lexie and the whole family very well. She was always the life of the party. Her brother August, Jr. and I were best friends. I spent many nights at the family home. I will cherish the fun times I had with her and the family. One thing I know Lexie will be in charge in heaven. God definitely has another angel. May god bring his blessings upon the entire family.
