“ Anna and Family, Your Mother was a wonderful person that Daddy and I enjoyed talking to everyday. She would always have that cute little smile on her face and a glow in her eyes when it was time to play dominoes. She was a heck of a domino player. She kept up with every domino played and what someone else had in their hands. She will be missed.

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with the family. She was such a wonderful lady & friend. She & Bernard Hrcir (my brother in law) loved to play dominoes at the Czech Catholic Home in Hillje. She was like a second mother to Bernard. He will miss her terribly. We will all miss her terribly.
Goodbye Mrs. Lillian, we will treasure all the memories we shared.
