“ Aunt Lois was a Christian woman her whole life. She was the one who sang Christmas Carols with us nieces and nephews at the Barosh Christmas celebration every year as I was growing up. In later years, after Grandma and Grandpa Barosh had passed away, she and Uncle Sonny began having the Barosh Christmas celebration at their house for many years. We made many wonderful memories there!!!!!! She exuded her spiritual beliefs every day of her 88 years. I will miss her enthusiasm for life and her kindness to all she encountered. May she now receive God’s reward: ETERNAL REST AND HAPPINESS. Love you, Aunt Lois❤️❤️

“ I couldn’t have asked for a more loving and wonderful mother in law. She loved her family. She was a remarkable person. Admired for her love of God and her zest for life. She fought the good fight these past weeks and has made it to her eternal home - singing Gods praises. We will miss her but we know she is healthy and watching over us. I know that our lives will be better just because this woman was a part of it. Rest In Peace mom and thank you for every you’ve done. You truly left this world better than you found it. Love n hugs.

“ I have memories as a little girl going with my family to the Barosh home for Sunday lunch— Lois was sweet, kind, and gracious. She always seemed to have a smile on her face. May she rest in peace in the company of our Lord and her loved ones who welcomed her with loving arms, and may God grant her family comfort and peace.
