

Louie Clark

June 22, 1955 - September 27, 2013

Louie Clark, 58 of El Campo, passed peacefully from this life on the evening of September 27, 2013 in his home after a battle with cancer. He was surrounded and supported by his loving family and friends during the last days of his life. Louie was born on June 22, 1955 in El Campo, Texas. He spent his days as an avid outdoorsman and farmer. Louie was very active in Ducks Unlimited.

He is survived by his son, Justin Clark and wife Felicia of El Campo, grandson Zachary Clark, sister Kim Venglar and husband Paul of Fort Worth, nieces and nephews Rikki Wilkins and husband Jason, Andrea Venglar, Gideon Venglar, Dylan Venglar, great-nieces and nephews Haileigh, Ciarra and Emory Venglar, Trenton and Austin Wilkins, aunt Leona Mollnar, and cousins Scott, Curtis and Robby Mollnar.

Louie was preceded in death by his parents Evelyn "Bootsie" and Melvyn Clark and uncle Robert Mollnar.

A remembrance gathering will be held on Saturday, October 5, 2013 from 10 am – 12 pm at Triska Funeral Home.

The family would like to offer many thanks to Houston Hospice, Terry Rutherford, Cherie Weishuhn and RoseAnn Mitchell for all their help.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to American Cancer Society or Ducks Unlimited.

“ Just learned of Louie's passing. Louie was unique - no doubt about that! His koozie once said "Life's a Trip" and we believe he enjoyed every day no matter what it brought forth. It was a pleasure and experience knowing him and we have several outstanding memories. He and Mike were forces to be reckoned with when together. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Take care.
