

Lydia Cooper

January 2, 1923 - January 2, 2012

Lydia Cooper, 89 of Garwood, passed away on January 2, 2012. She was born on November 17, 1922 in Needville to the late John and Mary Zachek Fojtik. She was retired as a registered nurse and served in the U. S. Army. She was a member of St. Mary's Church, Catholic Daughters of America and the Christian Mothers.

She is survived by her daughter Mary Jane Terry and husband Stanley of Katy, sons John J. Gogan and wife Betty of Houston, Michael David Gogan of Houston, 6 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, sisters Vlasta Boehm of El Campo and Virginia Pavlovsky of Garwood. She was preceded in death by her husbands John Gogan, Sr. and Raymond Frank Cooper, sons Patrick Joseph Gogan and James Gogan, and sister Alice Schoellmann.

Visitation will be on Wednesday from 3 pm until 8 pm. Services will be held on Thursday, January 5, 2012, with a Rosary recited by the Christian Mothers at 10 am followed by Funeral Services at Triska Funeral Home with Deacon Edward Wendel officiating. Burial will follow at St. Mary's Cemetery in Nada.

The family would like to give special thanks to Lydia's caregiver, Deborah Elledge, for her loving care.

Tribute Wall

JT

“ Our thoughts and Prayers are with you. We know it is only a matter of time until we are with our loved ones at gods side.

John Batterson and Family - League City, TX - January 05, 2012 at 12:00 AM

LC

“ John, on behalf of my son Lucas, wife Yvette & myself we extend our hearts to you and your entire family at this time for your loss. May the lord bless your hearts and give you peace and comfort in this trying time.

God bless.

Lucas/Yvette/Larry Hughes - Katy, TX - Co-Worker - January 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM