“ I remember always being excited to hear that Mamie's family was coming to Mama Northcut's. She nearly always brought kolaches that she had made. She, as were all the Northcut girls, was a great cook. She was the one with the idea to make a Northcut cookbook. It was so good, she ended up doing another cookbook. These books are among my prize possessions. I haven't gotten to see her for several years, but I'll miss knowing that she was alive. There were 9 girls and 5 boys in Andy and Nancy's family. Now there is one. Mamie is having a great, happy reunion seeing her family again. I'll miss her.... love ya, Mamie!!

“ Anyone who met Mamie had to admire her spunk and strength. She enjoyed cleaning the flower beds at Garden Villa weather permitting. I had the privilege of being Mamie's hair stylist for many years. She is enjoying the beautiful rewards of Heaven which she richly deserved. A life well lived and much loved. Toodie Brady

“ Mamie was a beautiful person inside and out. She was very strong willed and never stopped to feel sorry for herself. She always tried to keep going no matter what health issue she was facing. I feel I am very blessed to have known Mamie. I pray she is now at peace with the good Lord above walking in the green grass among the birds and squirrels in the sunshine. She fought the good fight.

Mamie was a beautiful and thoughtful lady. I came to know her at Garden Villa Nursing Home and had many visits with her.

My sister Mamie was the most incredible strong, stubborn, sweet, generous to a fault, loving, kind, forgiving, hardest working person I have ever known. She is sorta like the Energizer bunny..she just kept going and going. The grass was always greener on her side of the fence. Fortunately, because as she always told me she raised me, I did inherit some of her good qualities. We are both gardeners but she always baked better than me (or anyone!). I think she had so many good things about her I could write a book named "Mamie"..with help from her hundreds and hundreds of friends in El Campo and throughout the awesome Bohemian family there. I can truly say I never heard anyone say anything bad about her)even in her large sibling family-and that's pretty good. As her good friend Mike said.." when I would go see her and she didn't answer the door or the hello he would follow the garden hose." That is also me. But she will always be with us in spirit, in memories, a beautiful plant, and thanks to Mike a garden hose. It will surely bring a smile to our faces. We should all hope to be a Mamie-like person..it would definitely be a better world. My daughter and I were there the day before she passed and I know I got a smile from her...it was work for her but she did it as I was talking to her and saying a prayer for her.
