“ Over the many years, we’ve shared hugs, kisses, home cooked meals and a lot of laughs sitting at their dining room table. As a family, we gathered at their home for BBQs, anniversaries, birthdays, and graduation parties in the backyard. Uncle Manuel always had jokes and he was usually the first one to laugh too. We miss him very much. To the family, please know that we are always here for all of you.

“ Another Marquez is gone but not forgotten. We have beautiful memories of him. Very hard worker in deed. He loved his wife so much and his kids. And if he didn't like you he'd let you know ! Manuel you are with your family in heaven now you will catch up where you left off. Rest in peace we will always feel you in spirit....

Always Monica....

“ In my life I have been blessed to know a handful of great men that influenced my life.

I was taken away from my Mexican heritage as a child and did not rediscover it again until I was an adult.

My Uncle Manuel Marquez was always loving to me and made me feel like his own son.

Even though I did not grow up with my Marquez family, my Uncle always made me feel like I did.

*I always loved him and wanted what he had,
A loving wife and a large beautiful family.*

I will miss you my dear Uncle Manuel.

*Love your Nephew
