“ My first memories of you is when you all came to visit us in San Antonio when my daddy was sick..I remembered playing in the yard tag..you gave me the sweetest memory of my childhood. You was kind and friendly with me and to my brothers and little sister. Give my Daddy and Mom a big hug from me tell them is miss them very much. I'm glad that I got to hug you and tell you I love you Manuel, until we meet again watch over us all sweet Cowboy.. Your loving Cousin Maria Elena Rivera Campos

Just wanted to thank you Manuel for being the best and most supportive Uncle you could to us. Since I was young you were always there to offer advice or any help I needed. You were a great, honest and hard working man and you will remain with me till I can see you again one day. My thoughts and prayer go out to all of our family.
