“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Little was my 3rd grade Spanish teacher, plus my business teacher in high school. She was always so nice to me and I truly enjoyed her classes. She was very proud of her children as well. I remember her telling us about them and their accomplishments. She was truly proud of them.
I was very lucky to have known her, and she will be missed. Bless your family.

“ When I got back from working in Iraq I went to visit Maggie to thank her for her letters and told her of my plans to go back to Texas A&M (at age 63) to get my degree and become a teacher. She said, "Jimmy, I want you to be a teacher." She believed anyone could do anything if they tried hard enough and I wasn't the brightest student but I graduated.
