

Margie Miller

December 29, 2011 - September 6, 2011

Margie Miller was born on December 29, 1932 in Ammannsville to the late Frank J. and Frances Bohac Parma. She received her high school diploma at El Campo High School. Margie and Edward "Ed" Miller were married on November 24, 1951 at St Philip the Apostle Catholic Church in El Campo. She worked as a clerk for Butler Grimes and Frnka Food Market. Also, she held several part-time bookkeeping jobs, and she worked at Methodist Day Care Center until her illness. Her greatest love was tending to and rocking the babies at the day care. She embraced her community by serving on the Holy Cross Memorial Park Cemetery committee for 21 years and by participating in the Catholic Daughters of America.

Margie was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her loving husband of 59 years, Ed Miller. She is also survived by her sister Anita David of Magnolia; brothers Leon Parma and wife Hilda of Tynan, Frank Parma III and wife Laura of Huntsville and B.G. Parma and wife Betty of El Campo; brother-in-law A. G. "Red" Miller and wife Hazel of El Campo; and many special Godchildren, Nieces and Nephews.

Visitation will begin on Thursday at 12 pm with a CDA and Parish Rosary to be recited at 7 pm at Triska Funeral Home. Funeral Mass will be at 11 am on Friday, September 9, 2011, at St. Philip the Apostle Catholic Church with Rev. Gary Janak officiating. Burial will follow at the Holy Cross Memorial Park Cemetery.

Serving as her pallbearers are Frank Parma IV, Alex Parma, Edward Parma, Greg Parma, Tim Parma, Leroy DeHaven and Lawrence Roddy. Honorary bearers are the members of the Holy Cross Memorial Park Cemetery Committee.

At the request of the family, memorial can be made to the Holy Cross Memorial Park Cemetery Gazebo Building Fund.
