“ Sending prayers to Marilyn's family. I will always cherish our friendship and our talks. She was such a kind and giving person and will truly be missed. You were so talented with your crafts and I loved the Christmas decorations you made me along with my towels and potholders. I still use them today and will always think of you. Rest in Peace Marilyn.

“ Donna and John,
I was saddened to learn of Marilyn's death. Our community has lost a very special and very talented lady. Whether I saw her at her gift shop, at the pool or at the quilters booth at the Christmas Mall, the 'Marilyn with a smile' that I knew and loved always brightened my day.
May the beautiful memories you have of her carry you through this tough time and the years ahead.
Love to you both,

I was blessed to have Mrs Kucera as a friend during the stages of placing my own Mom in the nursing home and then the loss when she passed away. Mrs Kucera was such a comfort to me during those stages. She was a very dear friend to my Mom. I have some hand towels that she made from fabric from my Mom's fabric shop that i will always cherish. May she RIP

“ *We are so sorry for your loss. Marilyn was always there when I needed her whether to visit in person or over the phone. Her dad and mine were twins so we grew up visiting her home in El Campo. I'm sure the family came to our house too but my fondest memories of our childhood were at her home with Denise and Darlene and Jr. Shirley's the oldest so she was probably busy being a young adult. Rest in Peace, sweet girl.
