“ My mom and me drove down to visit Martha last year and she was so full of knowledge and laughter we Margy White and Daughter Patricia Zaruba and family will truly miss her. We just learned she passed today we have been trying to call her but did not know she was ill. We send our heart felt sympathy to her family and know she is in heaven resting in peace now.

My mom Margy White and her talked almost ever day they were good buddies and she will always cherish the visits and memories they had.

Love always,
Margy White
and daughter trish
