“ Thank you all for your prayers and sympathy. Sandy is no longer suffering; and even though she lost her legs, she is flying with the angels in heaven with our Lord. She gave it a good fight and loved to laugh and enjoyed life even to the end. She was where she wanted to be...at her own home with her beloved cats when the Lord took her home. We will miss her laughter and her strong will, as we are reminded that family means the most in this life as well as the next. Rest in peace sister, until we meet again.
