“ May God bless you Mary. Our paths crossed in the Czech Republic when she and her granddaughter, Tria, had taken a group trip there with Victor Petr from the Czech Heritage Society in the 1990's. I relied heavily on her fluent Czech language during that trip. I remember her to be a kind, warm, and generous person. My sincere condolences to the family.

“ I am so sorry that I am just learning of the passing of your precious mother. I did not know her for as long as I would like to have. First, I met her when she was having therapy at Wharton Nursing and Rehab. She was so kind to EVERYONE there. I never heard an unkind word about her. The mention of her name always brought a smile to the residents there. When I found that she had moved to Elmcroft, I started visiting her there. Again, she was her precious sweet self and was loved there. Had I known about her passing, I would have made every effort to have attended her service. She will not be forgotten.

Sympathy to all of her family whom she loved dearly.
