“ The beautiful souls of our precious daughters will be at the gates of Heaven when we will finally arrive to be reunited with them. Leslie and Melanie certainly made an entrance to be reckoned with when the angels welcomed them to Heaven. We will always miss them until we are with them again. Daughters are such a special gift to mothers who enjoy them every minute we have had with them. They will always live on in our hearts and thru their children. We were blessed God gave them to us for the seemingly short time. But knowing we will be together again forever when our time comes. Love to you Toodie

“ Madisen, James and Jack,
There are no words. I am so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful mother. She was a bright light and had such a kind heart. It's always been a beautiful thing to see the love that the three of you have for each other. Lean on each other and hold each other up. Many prayers are being said for your strength and peace. I hope you can feel them.

“ Marion, losing a son was so hard ,so strong and loving to us every day. But a daughter gone is a different kind of hurt. Always being so much like us seems like the void is more as we are like our mothers now. We will never get to see just how alike we were as we age without them. Knowing we will be with all of them when our time comes gives me such a feeling of love and comfort. I pray God gives you the peace and you have the faith you need at this time. Remembering our beautiful daughters happy and we will be celebrating with them in the Glory of Heaven together one day. I love you. Toodie

“ Aunt Melanie,

I will never forget all of the wonderful times we shared together as a family. Whether it was our annual family summer vacations at the Cape, or our trips to visit in Texas, I am filled with nothing but amazing memories of such treasured times. I'm still in disbelief that you are no longer here. But I know you are looking down proudly on Madisen, James, and Jack, my cousins who I admire so much, as they stand strong and continue to accomplish so many great things in their lives. Rest in Peace, I will always cherish your memory.

“Melanie (May),

You left too soon. You're the best Friend and business partner a person could have. I've learned so much by your side. Your love of hosting, linens, flowers, sparkle and shine was contagious.

I adored how you shadowed your mothers' teachings as you turned the pages of her cookbook and spoke of her so fondly, saving every voicemail that she left until your mailbox was full.

You loved the label of hover mother, and wore it proudly. Your children were your world, and you sang out their accomplishments to every one that you encountered. Madisen, the Med student, James, the Business Man, and Jack, awarded the most Christ like student in his class.

Your brothers teased and called you May. "mayday mayday" you loved to tease them back, and usually won every encounter, as you told it. With your daddy by your side, you were strong.

You held a special place in your heart for those that you served. Especially your brother, Byron who was the closest to your age, and your father who passed as you laid by his side. You were "the fixer".

I love the stories that you told me of your time In nursing, especially with the aids patients. You would sometimes be the last angel face that they would see. Raising your mask to smile down upon them in their final hour.

You were a great friend to many. We were lucky to have our time with you, you spoke so highly of your friends to me, and I saw their names and special dates in their lives on your Marilyn Monroe calendar in the Kitchen.

Your memory will live on in your creativity at Our vacation homes. Crystal Visions, Angels, Blues, and Flowers. Your words gracing every wall, your light shines on. I can't do this business without you, and that's why i find myself signing my correspondance "Best, May and Ro" as we always did before.

Your friend Forever,

*Rochelle

Marian...I am so loss to find the right words..Melanie will forever hold a special place in my heart...I so remember the great years of our daughters sharing a friendship through their high school years and what made that so much more special to me is when Melanie asked if she could wear my blue Jr. Prom dress from 1963 (she then a senior 1984) oh how special that was to me and forever will be , Melanie has still held that special place in my heart...I will forever remember seeing her at her senior year, Jr Prom march ..wearing my Jr Prom dress (1963)...how special that was to me...to hear this sad news brought back so many of those memories and I will forever cherish them...I ask God to be there *for you Marian and all your family as ya'll walk the tough days ahead. I pray for your strength as you remember fond memories of Melanie...such a beautiful young lady who has left us way to soon...also asking God to help make you STRONG...as a mother who so loved her daughter and to help you through those tough days yet ahead. Remember I love you and will continue to have you in my daily prayers ..as I am too a mom and can only imagine your hurting and tough days yet to come...Take care ..and continue to cherish the many fond memories of this beautiful young lady "A Daughter" so they help you find peace...love ya bunches...Bernadette..
