“ Melba was a dear caring friend for many years. Taking care along with Harold, her mother-in-law was cherished and loved by her family. I will always remember her kindness to Buck in his young days. Her life was a perfect example of one well lived and so loved. I am honored to call her my friend. Rest in peace and whole again, my dear friend. Love you always, Toodie

“ Mrs. Schuetze, along with her husband were very friendly, helpful people when my child, as well as alot more kids around the El Campo area raised animals for the fair, telling us what food to feed when and how. Both of them were very knowledgeable in their feed store. God has given Melba a long life, now its your turn to rest in peace and soar with the Angels.
