“ Melody started out as a neighbor "just down the road", but became more than that. She was a fan of Bobby Jones Czech Band, and I saw her at the dance regularly. My youngest son, Wesley, and her developed a sweet relationship, in which Wesley, thought they were destined marry. Melody being the kind soul she was, never dissuade him, even though there was a 20 year age difference. They shared many common interests, like both being Tim McGraw fans. Melody and her parents became our close friends, and Wesley was always happier when she was around. When I told Wesley of her death, we shared some good memories and shed a tear. God Bless You Melody, the Angels have a new friend.

“ I will always remember Melody's sweet heart and contagious smile for those whom she called her close friends. High school days were never worrisome but made a little easier when she would come around . Your gentle , happy-go-lucky spirit will be missed dear friend . Let your light now shine bright with the angels & for Jesus .

Melody always had a beautiful smile and lifted anyone up that happened to be around her. I loved having her in the salon. Heaven is a brighter place when Melody arrived. Many souls gone before we're there to greet and welcome her. Sing with the angels, dear Melody. Love and miss you. Toodie
