

Noah Hugh Carmical

April 26, 2004 - July 26, 2025

Noah Hugh Carmical, 21, of El Campo, Texas passed away in a tragic car accident on July 26, 2025. He was born on April 26, 2004 in Webster, Texas and graduated from Santa Fe High school in Santa Fe, Texas in 2022. At the time of his passing, he was employed as an automotive technician with PAR Performance and Customs in El Campo. Noah is survived by his parents Virgil Carmical and Jennifer and Richard Chomout, Jr, Grandfather Tim Carmical, Grandparents Mark and Judy Pilsner, Grandfather Michael Holmes, and sisters Skylar Carmical and Brynn Chomout. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Deborah Carmical.

Noah was a talented and determined automotive technician with a passion for the hot rod and performance automotive community. After graduating from high school, Noah followed his father's footsteps into the automotive industry. After moving back to El Campo, he began working with Elite Automotive, and then moved to PAR Performance and Customs where he found his niche with diesel and performance vehicles. His 1970 Nova SS was his passion project. Noah will be remembered for his infectious laugh, his ability to bring laughter to those around him, his fierce intensity for project completion and problem solving, his passion for all things in the realm of automotive performance, and his thirst for knowledge. His presence will be immeasurably missed by his family and friends.

The memorial service for Noah will be held at Triska Funeral Home on Sunday, August 10, 2025 at 2 p.m. Visitation with the family will begin at 1 p.m.

There will be a memorial car show in Noah's honor hosted by PAR Performance on Saturday, August 16, 2025. The event will be held at 220 Sam Bishkin Road in El Campo beginning at 11 a.m.

“ Noah was definitely one of the best friends you could have, I have so many memories with him, between goofing off while working at jack n the box with him, or even sonic, to just driving around and listening to music or going to the gym. You'll be forever missed, and I'll never forget any of our memories.
