“ Words can't describe the sadness in my heart because I can't be there to say my final good-bye, sister. You have left me many wonderful memories. I loved hearing the stories you used to tell me about when you were little: staying with grandma Felicita and running up "the tower" to ring the lunch bell for grandpa and all the workers, signaling lunch time; about hiding so you didn't have to go pick cotton; about you holding me when I was a baby, and pretending I was your ""baby doll"; about you missing me to the point of tears after you got married and asking BERA to go get me, but Mom wouldn't let me go, and so many more memories, like always saying I was fat. ha ha! Thanks for the Memories. I love you! R.I.P.

“ *I remember when Aunt Olga used to make her great tasting chicken tamales in her kitchen. Those were so good!
One summer when we were kids, when we lived on Castledale, Aunt Olga worked close to us. She would come to the house during her lunch hour and eat her lunch with us.
My favorite memory of her was when Rudolph and I asked her to baptize our daughter, Patricia. She was so excited and happy that we had asked her. Little did she know that the honor was ours.
Aunt Olga, we love you and you will always be in our hearts and you will never be forgotten.
Danny, Pam and Ronnie, our deepest condolences to you all. Love you and God bless you.
With much love, your cousin - Rudolph and Anna Rodriguez*
