“ My sencere condolences for your loss. Keep the faith that you will see him again some day. Sure had some good times at work and hunting with Pat. I used to love to make him laugh just to hear him do it. He was a good man and most definately loved his family and he spoke of you often. God Bless you!

“ I enjoyed having Pat in class many years ago -- outgoing, cooperative. By chance I happened to see him last year when the Traveling Wall was in El Campo. I'm glad that we had a good, if brief, visit in the hot sun.
