“ Dennis and I have great memories of Randy when he was a kid. Seems like he and Jeff were always on the same baseball team. Our day was not complete if we didn't see Randy, Jeff, Jeremy, Terry Fuller, Robert A., and the Padgit boys playing basketball in our driveway. Randy was a great kid and obviously grew up to be a great man. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family. We are so sorry for your loss.

“ And if today feels heavy, it's because it is.
You're not here, and that truth weighs on everything.
I miss you more than words could ever say.
You were my little brother, but so often it felt like you were the one carrying us all with your light, your laughter, your heart.
I'll carry you with me-in memories, in the quiet, like that moment outside when we looked up at the sun together the day before.
You were so brave and so strong-not just for yourself, but for all of us.
I'll carry your memory with me-everywhere, always. And when today feels too heavy, I'll try to remember: you'd want me to laugh again, to live big, like you always did.
