“ Raul was my first cousin. He always came to visit our family. When he came to see us we always had the best conversations, laughter, Food, and a family gathering. He was so generous and would bring B B Q from his Favorite restaurant. Of course, I made all side dishes. We always had so much in common. Mom always talked about this past. Raul enjoyed every afternoon with us. We are going to miss you cousin. Memories of love and our friendship are treasures that will carry with us always. Rest in peace Raul. Love Florez family.

“ My mother, Joyce Henderson, has been thinking about him for years and wondering if he was still in El Campo. She was very fond of Raul and thought he was a very nice person. I hope that they will meet again in a much better place. Our sincere sympathy to the whole family for this great loss.
