“ I was never able to meet your mother, Raul. However, I am glad to say I was around to have met you. It is said that all the good people in this world are gone too soon. But I know your mother was waiting there for you wherever you are. You will be honored and remembered by your family for our lifetime. Until we meet again, from Gabby, Rose, Jose, April, David, Eli, Melody, Abraham, and Andrew. We will always remember you. In your memory, we will donate a tree that will one day grow as strong as you were.

“ Raul was the best manager O'Reilly has ever had. He will be greatly missed. Raul was always so chill and easy to talk to about your vehicle. He cared so much about his staff and always went above and beyond for his customers. O'Reilly's will never be the same. I hope and pray for the family to find peace and comfort.
