“ May the comfort of God help you during this difficult time. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no can steal" God gave us memories that way we might have roses in December. May you feel God's comforting presence during this time of sorrow.

With my deepest sympathy;

“ My life is better because i knew you because i love you because you help give me the gift of our son. I wasnt ready to lose you neither was Junior and wecare being forced to say a word we dont want to utter a word that this time sounds terrifyingly permanent even though we know we will see you again one day. A word that too often we had to say in life already. This word that taste bitter and sours my gut and cripples us. I hate this word. Its goodbye. My first love, my undenying soulmate, and friend i selfishly dont want to pronounce it im sorry i dont know how to yet. I think of becky your ultimate soulmate and wife and your kids and i promise ill be strong enough to say it for them soon. Ill always love you always agapely and without fear to scream it aloud ill always love you Raymond. That i can say and it feels better than to hold it inside any longer. Thank you for our son. Help me make peace with you being gone.
