“ Pat, my sympathy is with you. I did not realize you lost your love, until the Holy Thursday mass. My daughter told me following mass. Becky had the most amazing smile. I know you will miss her. We are old friends and classmates. Please reach out to friends. It is not easy to be left behind when we have been together for such a long time. Many Blessings are coming to you. Allow God to carry you, He will.

“ I’m not quite sure what I’ll do without hearing Becky’s laugh, but in heaven they’ll be lucky to have her there. We became good friends in high school and had so many fun adventures as we moved into our apartment together and tried to grow up. I sure will miss her, and I pray for your family as you go through the days to come remembering her.
