“ Greetings. I wanted to take a moment express my condolences upon learning of Dickie's passing. Though we haven't seen each other in years, I have fond memories of growing up together, playing football and graduating together in 1982. I was glad to also see familiar names as his Pallbearers team mates and class mates. Solace and peace during your time of mourning. “ Each life on earth is a precious gift from God. Rejoice in the days spent laughing, loving and singing with each other while here. I know the reunion of His children will be a glorious day to be together again with all the souls gone before. May the arms of our Lord wrap you with comfort and give you peace in the coming days. Prayers for the George family knowing the hurt that is there. God bless you all.

“ We lost a great guy here at Greenleaf Nursery, as well as our community, and he will be missed dearly, his great sense of humor and that happy smile he always had on his face. Our thoughts are prayers are with you Susan and the whole George family. God has chosen a super guy for his garden, and he will soar high within the heavens. Let God come into each and everyone of your hearts, and remember he is in God's hands and he will always be in each one of ours hearts.
