“ My uncle was funny, a jokester enjoyed grilling, sharing with his family. I still see him sitting at card table with his sons and his brother (my Dad) playing dominoes. His quilting was incredible! I thank you for my quilt , cherishing it forever. Missing you. May you Rest In Peace 🙏

“ I have known this man for about 36 years. He was a wonderful man and always welcomed me into his home even when we were crazy teenagers. He loved all of his Family to the fullest. He and his wife Anita were so close and showed how a marriage really should be by going through good and bad times they worked it out and loved one another to no extreme. They were God Parents to my children because I had a trust in them. May he rest in peace on those golden roads with pretty flowers and fresh air until we all meet again.
