“ I first met Dick in 1999 and worked with him on many projects during our time at the South Texas Project and often stopped in to visit him at his house and have lunch at Father and Son there in El Campo. About a year ago he showed off his grandsons to me.

“ I have known Dick since 1963. I was planning on visiting him the end of April. I was saver upset when I heard of his passing. Mary Beth and your sons he spoke of yall every time we spoke on the phone. Chris, your brother and I had fond memories of you and your visits. My love, prayers and sympathy goes out to his family.
